Salisbury Township, Allentown, Pa.: The Salisbury Township Police would like to alert the community about a series of thefts from vehicles, and a vehicle theft, that occurred in the early morning hours of February 22, 2010. The theft from vehicle incidents occurred in the 800 block of Nantucket Circle, and the 1600 block of Hillcrest Avenue. Items reported as stolen include sunglasses, jewelry, electronic equipment, and cash. The suspects apparently entered the vehicles through unlocked doors. The vehicle theft occurred in the 600 block of Ash Street where the suspect apparently entered the unlocked vehicle. The Salisbury Township Police Department is currently investigating these incidents and requests that if anyone has any information about these crimes to contact their office at 610-797-1447 or Lehigh County Radio at 610-437-5252.

The Salisbury Township Police Department would also like to advise the public to take safety precautions such as locking all vehicle and residence doors at all times, and to be sure not to leave valuables unsecured in their vehicles or houses. Be extra vigilant in your neighborhoods and report any suspicious activity immediately to the Salisbury Township Police Department as soon as possible.
